(2) An application for recognition must be accompanied by—

- (a) a certified copy of the decision commencing the foreign proceedings and appointing the foreign representative; or
- (b) a certificate from the foreign court affirming the existence of the foreign proceedings and of the appointment of the foreign representative; or
- (c) in the absence of evidence referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b), any other evidence acceptable to the court of the existence of the foreign proceedings and of the appointment of the foreign representative. 5

(3) An application for recognition must also be accompanied by a statement identifying all foreign proceedings in respect of the debtor that are known to the foreign representative. 10

(4) The court may require a translation of documents supplied in support of the application for recognition into an official language of the Republic.

Presumptions concerning recognition

16. (1) If the decision or certificate referred to in section 15(2) indicates that the foreign proceedings are proceedings within the meaning of section 1(g) and that the foreign representative is a person or body within the meaning of section 1(h), the court may so presume. 15

(2) The court may presume that documents submitted in support of the application for recognition are authentic, whether or not they have been legalised.

(3) In the absence of proof to the contrary, the debtor's registered office, or habitual residence in the case of an individual, is presumed to be the centre of the debtor's main interests. 20

17. (1) Subject to section 6, foreign proceedings must be recognised if—

- (a) the foreign proceedings are proceedings within the meaning of section 1(g); 25

(3) An application for recognition of foreign proceedings must be decided upon at the earliest possible time. 35

(4) The provisions of this section and of sections 15, 16 and 18 do not prevent modification or termination of recognition if it is shown that the grounds for granting it were fully or partially lacking or have ceased to exist.

Subsequent information 40

18. From the time of filing the application for recognition of the foreign proceedings, the foreign representative must inform the court promptly of—

- (a) any change in the status of the recognised foreign proceedings or the status of the foreign representative's appointment; and
- (b) any other foreign proceedings regarding the same debtor that become known to the foreign representative. 45

Relief that may be granted upon application for recognition of foreign proceedings

19. (1) From the time of filing an application for recognition until the application is decided upon, the court may, at the request of the foreign representative, where relief is urgently needed to protect the assets of the debtor or the interests of the creditors, grant relief of a provisional nature, including—

- (a) staying execution against the debtor's assets;
- (b) entrusting the administration or realisation of all or part of the debtor's assets located in the Republic to the foreign representative or another person designated by the court, in order to protect and preserve the value of assets that, by their nature or because of other circumstances, are perishable, susceptible to devaluation or otherwise in jeopardy;
- (c) any relief mentioned in section 21(1)(c), (d) and (g).

(2) An order issued under subsection (1) must be dealt with as contemplated in section 17 of the Insolvency Act, 1936 (Act No. 24 of 1936), or section 357(1) and (4) of the Companies Act, 1973 (Act No. 61 of 1973), as the case may be.

(3) Unless extended under section 21(1)(f), the relief granted under this section terminates when the application for recognition is decided upon.

(4) The court may refuse to grant relief under this section if such relief would interfere with the administration of foreign main proceedings.

20. (1) Upon recognition of foreign proceedings that are foreign main proceedings—

- (a) commencement or continuation of individual legal actions or individual legal proceedings concerning the debtor's assets, rights, obligations or liabilities is stayed;
- (b) execution against the debtor's assets is stayed;
- (c) the right to transfer, encumber or otherwise dispose of any assets of the debtor is suspended; and
- (d) section 21 of the Insolvency Act, 1936 (Act No. 24 of 1936), applies with regard to assets situated in the Republic to the same extent as it would have if the insolvent had been sequestrated by a court.

(2) The scope, and the modification or termination, of the stay and suspension referred to in subsection (1) are subject to sections 20, 23 and 75 of the Insolvency Act, 1936, and sections 341 and 359 of the Companies Act, 1973 (Act No. 61 of 1973), and the court may, at the request of the foreign representative or a person affected by subsection (1), modify or terminate the scope of the stay and suspension.

(3) Subsection (1)(a) does not affect the right to commence individual actions or proceedings to the extent necessary to preserve a claim against the debtor.

(4) Subsection (1) does not affect the right to request the commencement of proceedings under the laws of the Republic relating to insolvency or the right to file claims in such proceedings.

Relief that may be granted upon recognition of foreign proceedings

21. (1) Upon recognition of foreign proceedings, whether main or non-main, where necessary to protect the assets of the debtor or the interests of the creditors, the court may, at the request of the foreign representative, grant any appropriate relief, including—

- (f) extending relief granted under section 19(1);

(g) granting any additional relief that may be available to a trustee, liquidator, judicial manager, curator of an institution, or receiver under the laws of the Republic.

(2) Upon recognition of foreign proceedings, whether main or non-main, the court may, at the request of the foreign representative, entrust the distribution of all or part of the debtor's assets located in the Republic to the foreign representative or another person designated by the court, provided that the court is satisfied that the interests of creditors in the Republic are adequately protected. 5

(3) In granting relief under this section to a representative of foreign non-main proceedings, the court must be satisfied that the relief relates to assets that, under the law of the Republic, should be administered in the foreign non-main proceedings or concerns information required in those proceedings. 10

(4) Without derogating from the application of the laws of the Republic generally, in granting relief under this section the court must indicate the laws of the Republic relating to the administration, realisation or distribution of a debtor's estate in the Republic that will apply. 15

Protection of creditors and other interested persons

22. (1) In granting or denying relief under section 19 or 21, or in modifying or terminating relief under subsection (3), the court must be satisfied that the interests of the creditors and other interested persons, including the debtor, are adequately protected. 20

CHAPTER 5

CONCURRENT PROCEEDINGS

28. (1) After recognition of foreign main proceedings, proceedings under the laws of the Republic relating to insolvency may be commenced only if the debtor has assets in the Republic.

(2) The effects of such proceedings are restricted to the assets of the debtor that are located in the Republic and, to the extent necessary to implement cooperation and coordination under sections 25, 26 and 27, to other assets of the debtor that, under the law of the Republic, should be administered in those proceedings.

Coordination of proceedings under laws of Republic relating to insolvency and foreign proceedings 35

29. Where foreign proceedings and proceedings under the laws of the Republic relating to insolvency are taking place concurrently regarding the same debtor, the court must seek cooperation and coordination under sections 25, 26 and 27, and—

 - (i) any relief granted under section 19 or 21 must be consistent with the proceedings in the Republic; and pursuant to section 20(2) if inconsistent with the proceedings in the Republic;

CHAPTER 6

33. Section 149 of the Insolvency Act, 1936, is hereby amended by the substitution for the proviso to subsection (1) of the following proviso:

“Provided that when it appears to the court equitable or convenient [that the estate of a person not domiciled in the Republic be sequestrated elsewhere, or] that the estate of a person over whom it has jurisdiction be sequestrated by another court within the Republic, the court may refuse or postpone the acceptance of the surrender or the sequestration.”. 40

Short title

34. This Act is called the Cross-Border Insolvency Act, 2000.

MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE CROSS-BORDER INSOLVENCY BILL, 2000

1. BACKGROUND

1.1 On 15 December 1997 the General Assembly of the United Nations adopted a resolution, co-sponsored by the Republic of South Africa, recommending that States review their legislation on cross-border insolvency and, in that review, give favourable consideration to the Model Law on Cross-Border Insolvency of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL), bearing in mind the need for internationally harmonised legislation governing instances of cross-border insolvency.

1.2 The enactment of the Model Law was considered by the South African Law Commission as part of its comprehensive review of the law of insolvency. The Bill emanates from the Law Commission's interim report on the Review of the Law of Insolvency: The Enactment in South Africa of UNCITRAL's Model Law on Cross-Border Insolvency (Project 63).

2. OBJECTS OF BILL

In line with the Guide to Enactment of the UNCITRAL Model Law on Cross-Border Insolvency, as few changes as possible have been made to the Model Law, as contained in the Bill, in order to strive for a satisfactory degree of harmonisation and certainty. However, the Model Law has been adjusted to suit South African law. The principal objects of the Bill are to promote—

- (a) cooperation between the courts and other competent authorities of the Republic of South Africa and foreign States involved in cases of cross-border insolvency;
- (b) greater legal certainty for trade and investment;
- (c) fair and efficient administration of cross-border insolvencies that protects the interests of all creditors and other interested persons, including the debtor;
- (d) protection and maximisation of the value of the debtor's assets; and
- (e) facilitation of the rescue of financially troubled businesses, thereby protecting investment and preserving employment.

3. CONSULTATION PROCESS

On 25 May 1998 the Law Commission invited comments from about 130 selected correspondents on the advisability of the enactment in South Africa of an adaptation of the Model Law. The Model Law and the Guide to Enactment of the UNCITRAL Model Law on Cross-Border Insolvency were attached to the invitation for comment. The invitation and the said attachments were also published on the website of the Law Commission on the Internet.

4. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

The State Law Advisers and the Department of Justice are of the opinion that this Bill must be dealt with in accordance with section 75 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996 (Act No. 108 of 1996), since it contains no provision to which the procedure set out in section 74 or 76 of the Constitution applies.

5. FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS FOR THE STATE

No additional financial implications arising from this Bill are foreseen.
