MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF THE ORANGE FREE STATE (PRIVATE) AMENDMENT BILL, 1997

1. Until the amendment of the name of the Province of the Free State under the Constitution of South Africa Amendment Act, 1995 (Act No. 20 of 1995), the name of the University of the Orange Free State contained the corresponding expression “Orange Free State”. The name of the province was, however, changed by Act No. 20 of 1995 to “Free State”. It is appropriate to bring the name of the University in line with the name of the province.

2. The expression “University of the Free State” is generally used as name for the University.

3. The objects of the Bill are—

3.1 to bring the name of the University in line with the name of the province within which it is situated by the deletion of the word “Orange”; and

3.2 to give effect to the general use of the name of the University as “University of the Free State”.

4. In the view of the University and the State Law Advisers the procedure set out in section 75 of the Constitution, 1996, should be followed with regard to this Bill.
