Mvelaphanda Holdings, Och-Ziff and Palladino Create Joint Venture to Focus on Natural Resources in Africa

January 29, 2008 - Mvelaphanda Holdings (Proprietary) Ltd (“Mvela Holdings”), OZ Management LP (“OZ Management”), a subsidiary of Och-Ziff Capital Management Group LLC (NYSE: OZM) (“Och-Ziff”) and Palladino Holdings Ltd (“Palladino”) have announced the creation of a joint venture, Africa Management Limited.

As part of the joint venture, Africa Management Limited has established African Global Capital I, L.P. (“African Global Capital”), as a platform to invest in both the private and public markets across Africa, with a bias towards natural resources and related businesses. The new joint venture will combine the regional infrastructure and expertise of Mvela Holdings and Palladino together with the global investment management expertise of OZ Management. Africa Management Limited will act as the exclusive vehicle for Mvela Holdings and OZ Management to pursue private investment opportunities within the region.

African Global Capital consists primarily of assets contributed by Mvela Holdings and Palladino, and a capital commitment from funds managed by OZ Management for the acquisition of additional assets and the further development of existing investments. Contributed assets range from exploratory mining and energy concessions to mature producing mining assets and public equity positions across Africa. Further assets will be contributed by Mvela Holdings to African Global Capital in addition to further capital commitments by funds managed by OZ Management, subject to the completion of certain conditions including appropriate regulatory approvals.

It is expected that further funds managed by Africa Management Limited will be formed in the near future, which will include capital commitments made by third party investors.

Tokyo Sexwale, founder of Mvela Holdings, said: “We intend to build on our already strong foothold in African investments in partnership with Och-Ziff. We have a strong historical relationship with Och-Ziff having invested together in transactions in the past, and their abilities in navigating financial markets have always impressed us. The partnership with Och-Ziff in African Global Capital will help us accelerate in building the leading African investment firm.”

Daniel Och, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Och-Ziff, said: “We are delighted to be entering into partnership with Tokyo Sexwale, Mvela Holdings and Palladino. Mvela Holdings has an exceptional track record of value creation and we look forward to working together to grow our combined venture and create the leading investment management business in the region.”

Mark Willcox, Chief Executive Officer of Mvela Holdings and newly appointed Chief Executive Officer of Africa Management (UK) Limited, said: “We have a strong pipeline of transactions across a broad spectrum of industries and geographies. We are excited by the opportunities available to African Global Capital and feel our partnership with Och-Ziff and Palladino places us in a prime position to capitalise on them.”
