

Engen Ikhwezi Convenience Centre opens in Mthatha

Engen Ikhwezi, which officially opened on 26 October, offers a wide range of convenience to customers and is more like a mini-food hall, offering the people of Mthatha, a variety of yummy goodness 24/7.

Customers can enjoy a diverse range of fast food, including a Steers, Debonairs Pizza, Corner Bakery, and Fishaways, as well as the convenient groceries of a Quickshop.

Engen Ikhwezi Convenience Centre, which is located on the corner of Spring and Tutor Ndamasa Streets, offers customer's quality fuels such as Engen Primax Unleaded and Engen Dynamic Diesel 50ppm, with ease of access and service for heavy-duty vehicles and trucks.

The owner of Engen Ikhwezi Convenience Centre, Mava Mkukwana is extremely excited about his new site, which is officially the largest Engen 1Plus service station in the Engen stable.

"The people of Mthata are thrilled by all the variety on offer. The location of the site is also ideal as it attracts locals as well as passing commuters," says Mkukwana.

"I'm very proud of my association with Engen, as the brand has a substantial footprint and is well known amongst our customers who have come to associate with Engen's brand promise of With us you are Number One.

"This promise fits in with my promise to offer exceptional service and always put the customer first," he adds.

Says Engen's Head of Retail, Seelan Naidoo who attended the grand opening: "Engen is very excited to see our network flourishing. Convenience and customer service remain key determinants of success in our industry."

Engen Managing Director and CEO Yusa' Hassan, who was also at the opening of Engen Ikhwezi Convenience Centre, says the company continues to focus on investing much effort into remaining an attractive destination for customers' fuel and convenience needs.

"It is therefore important for Engen to continually seek relevant and innovative spaces where we can interact with our customers meaningfully. Engen Ikhwezi is the perfect example of this."

Adds Naidoo: "We wish new dealer, Mava Mkukwana and his team every success."
