EXPLORING THE AFTERLIFE: THE SOUTH AFRICAN CEMETERIES ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCES, "POST LIFE... WHAT REMAINS" CONFERENCE

The South African Cemeteries Association (SACA) is thrilled to announce its upcoming biennial conference, "Post Life... What Remains," in collaboration with SALGA (South African Local Government Association), AVBOB, and Memorial Parks by Calgro. Set to take place from the 13th to the 15th of September 2023 in the captivating city of Cape Town, this conference promises to be a transformative event, inviting municipal and other relevant stakeholders to join the conversation.

The conference expects to draw 100 to 130 participants, including distinguished academic researchers, esteemed professionals, and government and industry representatives. "Post Life... What Remains" will serve as a hub for stimulating discussions, knowledge sharing, and fruitful collaborations. Together, we will delve into the intricate dimensions of the afterlife and its profound influence on the environment and society.

The keynote address offers unique insights into the conference theme whilst the conference presentations are expected to allow participants to share research findings, innovative ideas, and practical experiences, panel discussions providing a platform for constructive dialogue and exchange of perspectives, and networking opportunities to facilitate collaboration among participants and the sharing of knowledge and best practices.

The conference aims to explore the profound influence our departed loved ones have on the environment and society while also examining the philosophical aspects of post-life and existence. By bringing together a diverse audience of academic researchers, professionals, and government and industry representatives, the conference aims to facilitate stimulating discussions, knowledge sharing, and collaborations that contribute to the betterment of our communities.

All municipal and relevant stakeholders are invited to journey with us and to be a part of this extraordinary event. Register now to secure your place at "Post Life... What Remains" and contribute to the collective understanding of post-life's impact and philosophy. For more information and to register, please visit Website: <http://sa-cca.org.za/>

We eagerly await your participation in this intellectually invigorating conference. Together, let's explore the mysteries of the afterlife and its significance for our communities.
